Morning Church!

The final Scrutiny gospel captures our imagination with a grasp that is relentless and hopeful. The raising of Lazarus is an epic story, rich in theology and spirituality. The drama is thick, palatable to the core.

Our culture seems to be obsessed with death. God's Word juxtaposes life and death, love and death, despair and hope, Christ invites, no challenges us, to open our graves, to live our lives in the Spirit, and to proclaim our faith in the resurrection of the dead. This story is about signs and works that led people to believe in Jesus. It's about spiritual stones being rolled away. It's about being called out of our personal tombs, and the extraordinary New Life of living forever.

Use your imagination. Be among the mourner-friends who have gathered at the tomb of Lazarus. One you loved has died. His sisters, overwhelmed with loss and grief, huddle together to comfort one another. All of a sudden a hush comes over the din of professional wailers who have been sitting shiva with Martha and Mary. It is the moment of Jesus' arrival in Bethany.

It is a moment rich with anticipation regarding what the intention of Jesus is. Imagine the reactions on the faces of those present when Jesus simply says, "Take away the stone!"

Moments ago they saw the emotional sadness become deeply embraced by Jesus. Jesus loved Lazarus and he allowed himself to feel deeply the grief a friend feels for another friend who has died.

The emotion of fear will not be found in Jesus. Jesus is not afraid of the potentiality of death's stench. Jesus is not afraid of death. Jesus knows this moment will show the glory of God. Jesus is one in love with God and is confident his prayer will be heard. We know how his story will end. Imagine the magnitude and shock of the mourners seeing Lazarus come forth after four days of death.

Pray with your imagination:

See yourself in the tomb's dark dankness.

What prejudice, compulsion, or addiction is your "spiritual boulder" preventing you from hearing Christ's call you forth to new life?

Listen to what Jesus says to you. How do you respond to Jesus?

The Raising of Lazarus reminds us that nothing is beyond Christ's saving power. No tomb can hold those who believe in him.

Nothing, not even death, will separate you from God's love.

It's the last week of Lent. Name and claim the stones that entomb you, the relationships that bind and mummify your soul. Reflect on your mortality and your death. Prayerfully review the choices you've made over time.

Ask Jesus to take away every stone, call you forth, and unbind you from all that prevents you from New Life now and forever.

God's blessings,

Janis

The secret
of this blessing
is that it is written
on the back
of what binds you.

To read
this blessing,
you must take hold
of the end
of what
confines you,
must begin to tug
at the edge
of what wraps
you round.

It may take long
and long
for its length
to fall away,
for the words
of this blessing
to unwind
in folds
about your feet.

By then
you will no longer
need them.

By then this blessing
will have pressed
itself
into your waking
flesh,
will have passed
into your bones,
will have traveled
every vein

until it comes to rest
inside the chambers
of your heart
that beats to
the rhythm
of benediction

and the cadence
of release.

Our God will raise us from the dead!

LAZARUS!

In the Old Testament, God promised to raise the people from their graves. In the New Testament, Jesus raised his friend, Lazarus from the dead. At the end of time, all who believe in Jesus will be raised from the dead, too!

Our God is a God of the Living. Yes, we will die one day. Like Lazarus, Jesus wants to raise us from the dead so we can live with him forever in the joy of heaven ~ the joy he promised to all who believe in him.

Lent is a time to remember you have one life.

Lent is a time to remember to live your life by loving, praying, helping, forgiving, listening, and serving your dear neighbors ~ your sisters and brothers.

Lent is a time to look at your loving and unloving choices. Ask Jesus to help you be more loving.

When do you deliberately refuse to love others as Jesus loves you? Selfishness is the same as refusing to love. We call this sin.

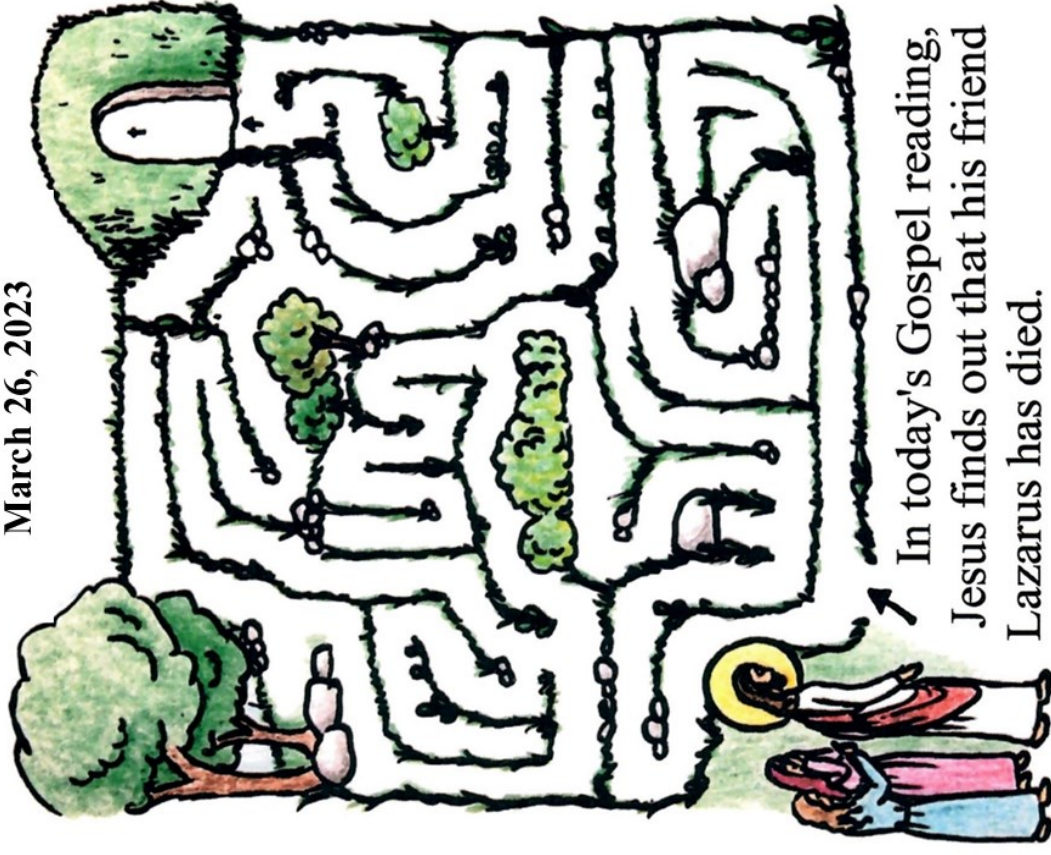

During Lent, try to be more loving and less selfish. We know and believe that even though we will die, God will raise us up.

Try to follow Jesus with your whole heart during Lent and every day. This is how you get ready for Easter and for the day when God will call you to heaven.
