Cristo murió.
Cristo resucitó.

Mi paz es mi regalo para ti...

¡Buenos días, Iglesia!

Este fin de semana conmemoramos el Día de los Caídos. Honramos y recordamos a todos los hombres y mujeres que dieron su vida por nuestra libertad, tanto aquí como en el extranjero. Estos valientes militares son una muestra de valentía. Murieron para garantizar todas nuestras libertades, como la libertad de expresión.

Ellos dieron su vida, y quienes resultaron gravemente heridos la dieron de otras maneras. Son héroes, no unos tontos ni unos perdedores.

Es una vergüenza llamar a nuestros héroes "tontos o perdedores", y mucho peor que un presidente estadounidense utilice estos términos despectivos para describirlos. Habiendo nacido el 4 de julio, siento un profundo aprecio por todos aquellos que sacrificaron sus vidas, extremidades y salud mental para que todos pudiéramos vivir en paz y ejercer nuestra libertad de expresión; libertad de culto; y libertad de la miseria y el miedo. Gracias, veteranos. Gracias.

Paz. La paz es el regalo de despedida de Jesús a sus seguidores. La paz de Cristo es la convicción de nuestra alma de que él siempre estará con nosotros, en la abundancia y en la necesidad, en la enfermedad y en la salud, en la alegría y en la tristeza, en el fracaso y en el triunfo.

El regalo de paz de despedida de Jesús nos cimienta y fortalece en la fe.
Su paz nos impulsa a proclamar la paz con la palabra y el ejemplo.

Su paz es contracultural en un mundo que prioriza la división, la disensión y la agitación desenfrenada.

Lo que has recibido como regalo, dalo como regalo. 1 Pedro 4:10

A Vision for a Future Full of HOPE

To Our Dear Neighbors,

As Catholic Sisters, vowed women religious, we deeply value the relationships and encounters we have had with so many of you while serving in schools, hospitals, parishes, retreat centers, nursing homes, food pantries, and outreach centers. Even if we do not know each other personally, we feel compelled to reach out to you today to express our heartfelt sadness, grief, and lament as we witness sudden and devastating changes severely impacting people in our communities—people we know, love, and who are our neighbors.

Many actions we observe in our nation today seem to contradict values that underlie our shared humanity, values which we have nurtured and endeavored to embody in our actions—although not always successfully—over our lifetimes as Catholic Sisters. Love, compassion, empathy, radical hospitality, and mercy are central to our lives. These values shared among all the world religions make us genuinely human. We firmly believe these values must ground us as a nation if there is to be a future full of hope for ALL generations to come.

Imagine a future centered on principles that allow for the full flourishing of all humanity and our common home, Earth. We know these principles as Catholic Social Teaching. Although you may use different words, the essence of this teaching transcends faith traditions and resonates in the lives of all people of goodwill. Adopting these principles can guide us in the days ahead.

We believe that:

- Every person is an expression of God. All life is sacred.
- We must prioritize the needs of those who are the most vulnerable.
- There is dignity in all work, and the rights of all workers must take precedence over profit.
- Earth is God's gift to us, and we have the privilege to cherish, defend, and protect her for future generations.
- Justice is the path to lasting peace.

Today, we ask you to join us in living these values with courage. Love our neighbors! Welcome the stranger! Care for the most vulnerable among us! Speak the truth! Work for justice! Only when "We the people" lead with compassion and empathy will a future filled with hope for all generations be possible.

May God continue to bless us on this journey.

Morning, Church!

This weekend we commemorate Memorial Day. We honor and remember all the women and men who gave their lives for our freedom here and abroad. These valiant members of the military are visible courage. They died to insure all of our freedoms, like freedom of speech.

Many gave their lives; and those who were severely injured gave their lives in other ways. They are heroes, not "suckers or losers."

It is a disgrace to call our heroes "suckers or losers.", and much worse for a U.S. president to use these derogatory terms to describe them. Being born on the Fourth of July, I have deep appreciation for all those who sacrificed their lives, limbs, and mental health so that all of us could live in peace and exercise our freedoms of speech and expression; freedom to worship; and freedom from want and fear. Thank you, Veterans. Thank you.

Peace. Peace is Jesus' farewell gift to his followers. Christ's peace is the conviction in our souls that he will always be with us ~ in plenty and want, in sickness and health, in joy and in sorrow, in failure and in triumph.

Jesus' farewell gift of peace grounds and strengthens us in faith.
 His peace missions us to proclaim his peace by word and example.

His peace is counter cultural to a world that prioritizes division, dissension, and unbridled upheaval.

What you have received as gift, give as gift. 1 Peter 4:10

Jesus Promises to Send the Holy Spirit

In today's Gospel reading Jesus promised to send the Holy Spirit to the disciples after He was gone. The Holy Spirit would teach them all they needed to know.

I will send the Holy Spirit...

I will read the Bible...

After Jesus left, the disciples would be confused about what Jesus had wanted them to do and how to go about building the Church He had started. But Jesus promised that they would not be alone. God the Holy Spirit would come to them and show them what they needed to do.

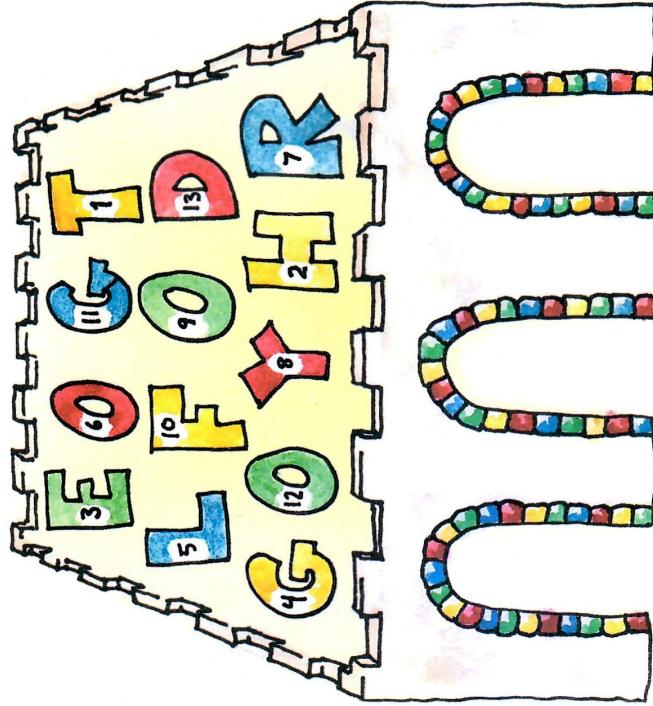

Where is the Holy Spirit now? He is still working in the Church. He inspires people to do what is right and to learn the truth. He also shows the leaders of the Church what God wants of them and keeps the Church's teachings free of error. Can you think of times when the Holy Spirit helped you?

In the One,
we are one.
