Morning, Church!

We're about to be inundated with this year's Super Bowl commercials. A recent NY Life commercial is more than a commercial:

What is agápē? The ancient Greeks had four words for love. The first three — philía, storgē, and érōs — describe the different kinds of love that people feel. But there is one love that stands out above the rest. Selfless love. It's called agápē (ah-gah-peh) — love as an action. Agápē is what inspires us to put others' needs before our own. It's about doing what's right, being our best selves, and building better futures.

The ancient Greeks have different words for love: Philia means "friendship and loyalty between equals, friends. Storgē means "love, affection of parents and children have for each other." Philautia means "self-love" ~ positively it's self-compassion, negatively it's egotism. Pragma means "pragmatic" a convenient, rational and realistic partnering in shared goals. Éros means "intimate love, finding any truth, leads to transcendence. Xenia* means hospitality to guests and strangers, or "ritualized friendship." Agápe means "unconditional love shown in actions." (*Xenophobia the dislike of or prejudice against people from other countries, a resurgence of racism).

Last week's second reading, a poetic and prophetic text, seems to need just one more line in light of today's text. Love is patient, kind, not pompous, rude, quick-tempered, jealous, self-seeking or inflated; love doesn't brood over injuries, or seek revenge. Love bears all things, believes all things, endures all things...Add this: Love acts.

Agápē is love in action. Add Love acts to Corinthians: Every loving thought and virtuous intention you have are inconsequential. They need to be enfolded, made visible in actions. Love acts.

Your Agápē is lived in your vocation wherever your feet are, in all your relationships. To love just as Jesus loved requires you to "go fishing" every day among your family, coworkers, classmates, and neighbors. Be encouraged that when you "go fishing" you are graced and guided by the Jesus' Spirit.

You don't need to be a master fisher. To haul in a Great Catch, on rough seas of your faith journey, Jesus asks you to trust him and to be willing and ready to serve, and share your faith through word and example, with Jesus beside you.

God's blessings,

spanis

SYNODALITY:

MEANS

WALKING TOGETHER

Communion + Participation + Mission

SINODALIDAD:

MEDIO

CAMINANDO JUNTOS

Comuni3n + Participaci3n + Misi3n

Meaning of the Synod Logo:

A large, majestic tree, full of wisdom and light, reaches for the sky. A sign of deep vitality and hope which expresses the cross of Christ. It carries the Eucharist, which shines like the sun. The horizontal branches, opened like hands or wings, suggest, at the same time, the Holy Spirit.

The people of God are not static: they are on the move, in direct reference to the etymology of the word synod, which means "walking together". The people are united by the same common dynamic that this Tree of Life breathes into them, from which they begin their walk.

These 15 silhouettes sum up our entire humanity in its diversity of life situations of generations and origins. This aspect is reinforced by the multiplicity of bright colours which are themselves signs of joy. There is no hierarchy between these people who are all on the same footing: young, old, men, women, teenagers, children, lay people, religious, parents, couples, singles; the bishop and the nun are not in front of them, but among them. Quite naturally, children and then adolescents open their walk, in reference to these words of Jesus in the Gospel: "I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and learned and revealed them to little children". (Mt 11:25)

The horizontal baseline: "For a synodal Church: communion, participation and mission" runs from left to right in the direction of this march, underlining and strengthening it, to end with the title "Synod 2021 - 2023", the high point that synthesizes the whole. ~ Isabelle de Senilhes, Paris, France

From the Synod Handbook:

Myriam Wijlens, a canon lawyer and Synod of Bishops consultant, told reporters that women need to "present themselves" and speak up "courageously" during this consultation phase.

It will also be important to listen to what women from non-Western cultures are saying, she added.

The Synod handbook said even though dioceses will be asked to spend six months doing extensive outreach and consultation with as many people as possible, the synodal process "is not a mechanical data-gathering exercise Synodal listening is oriented toward discernment in which people listen to each other, to their faith tradition and to "the signs of the times in order to discern what God is saying to all of us.

Luke 5:1-11

Peter had been fishing all night and caught nothing. But when Jesus told him to let the nets down again, they got filled right up! Can you draw enough fish to fill the nets?

Fishers for God

In today's gospel reading Peter had been out fishing all night and hadn't been able to catch any fish. When Jesus told him to let down the nets again he did it anyway. He was very surprised when the nets filled up with fish right away. And there were so many that the boat started to sink!

Jesus told Peter and his friends James and John that he was going to make them "fishers of men." But He didn't mean that they would catch people in nets! He was showing them that they had to bring people into the Church.

Who are the "Fishers of God" today? Who helps people come to a deeper faith? How do they do that?

How do YOU help others to believe in God?

Picture Puzzle: An Amazing Catch!

The pictures for this story are all mixed up!
Sort them out by putting the right numbers in the corners.

So Jesus preached from Peter's boat.	The nets were completely filled!
They called James and John to help with the fish.	Jesus was preaching and a large crowd came.
They left their nets and followed Jesus.	Then Jesus told Peter to let down the nets.
